

FALL 2011 TO SUMMER 2012 UNIVERSITY SCREENING LIST

Through the concerted efforts of Education Under Fire organizers, tens of thousands of people have viewed the documentary, Education Under Fire, between Fall 2011 and Summer 2012. During the first 6-7 months of the initiative, over 200 screenings and conversations were carried out across North America and abroad. These screenings took place almost entirely on college and university campuses. Read through the list below to see where that activity took place.

Thanks largely to the Free DVD Program, there were so many more screenings during Fall 2012 that they can't be summarized here. You can, however, read some of the stories reported during the fall in a separate document, which is available for download at:
